Farewell Address

Sermon given on June 28, 2015

Our dear family in Christ,

In my first sermon, eighteen years ago, I shared with you that we were beginning a new dance and that while each of us knew how to dance we were going to have to learn how to dance together. Learning to dance together meant that we would have to get to know each other, learn each other's strengths and weaknesses, learn to forgive each other when we stepped on each other's toes, learn to trust each other, and learn to listen to the One who was playing the music.

For eighteen years we have been dancing together and the dance we are doing now is not the dance we were doing then because we are not the same people. Together we have grown spiritually as we have submitted ourselves to the Lordship of Jesus Christ.

Linda and I have thanked God for you every day for the past eighteen years. Wherever we go we boast of your love for Christ and for one another, of your loving, caring, gracious spirit, of your faithfulness in prayer, of your generosity in the giving of your hearts, your time, your abilities, and your monies in His service. You are precious to us, and we will never forget you. We love you so much!

We have never ceased to pray for you. In January of 1997, when Rob Glasgow called informing me of your decision my daily prayer has been, “Father, draw us closer to you and to one another.” Our Father has been answering this prayer. Through all the challenges we've faced, you've kept Christ preeminent, and you've grown in your love for him and your willingness to be disciplined. You've become a family, a family who welcomes others to our services, a family who cares about each other, and a family who also cares about the needs of those beyond our parish walls.

I've prayed that God would give you wise minds and spirits attuned to his will, so that you might gain a deeper understanding of his purposes; that you would live lives that honor our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, so that he would be proud of you as you work hard for him; that as you learn more and more about how God works, you would learn how to do the work he has given you to do, that you would be inwardly strengthened by His Holy Spirit so that you might endure with joy the sufferings of a disciple of Christ.

Each day I've prayed Psalm 69:6-7 for myself:

*O God, you know my foolishness, and my faults are not hidden from you.
Let not those who hope in you be put to shame through me, Lord God of hosts;
let not those who seek you be disgraced because of me, O God of Israel.*

And where we have failed in this, we ask your forgiveness.

Finally, my dear brothers and sisters, while our dancing together is coming to an end, the dance will continue...just with a new partner. I am confident that the Lord of the dance will continue to watch over you, that he will continue to preserve, protect and defend you, that he will continue to draw you closer to himself and to one another, so that when your new dance partner arrives your hearts will be so knit together that your next dance will exceed anything that has gone before.

The chorus from the 1963 hymn, The Lord of the Dance, has been going through my head this morning.

Dance, then, wherever you may be, I am the Lord of the dance, said he, and I'll lead you all, wherever you may be, and I'll lead you all in the dance, said he.

And so my brothers and sisters, as I have said nearly every Sunday for the past eighteen years, "May you continue to walk in love as Christ loved us and gave himself for us, an offering and sacrifice to God."

With much love and affection,

Fr. Ron and Linda

Thank You...Thank You

Dear Friends,

Linda and I were so overwhelmed by the Retirement/Farewell Party you gave us on June 20th. Our thanks go out to all who had a part in the planning, preparation, and carrying out of the party...it was awesome! We appreciate so very much the cross, the Memory Book, and the generous monetary gift. Thank you so very much. You are dear to us, and forever will be.

May God richly bless you always,

Fr. Ron and Linda

Calling Committee Report

Dear St. Luke's Family,

The Calling Committee is now well on its way towards calling the next rector of St. Luke's. We have received five applications from Bishop Eric, and will begin interviews with the candidates shortly. Our reception of applications closes on July 23 2015 so we will still be open to applications till at least that date. The Bishop also informed he received a total of twelve applications for rector of St. Luke's.

All the applicants have been vetted by Bishop Eric and have good references. Our plan is to first interview the five candidates by skype, then if no other applications have come in, the Vestry will pick the final two (or possibly three) candidates for face to face interviews and decide who will be the next rector of St. Luke's.

I'm asking all parishioners to commit yourselves to earnest prayer & fasting for the Vestry of St. Luke's especially, as the church bylaws places the responsibility on them to call the next rector of St. Luke's.

As it is obvious by now we will not have a Rector in place on July 1 2015 so Bishop Eric has scheduled priests to come and celebrate Mass Sunday mornings. Father Tom Foster of Modesto, will be the celebrant on most Sundays so we thank him and welcome him to St. Luke's!

If anyone has any question or concern about our search process please do call on me or the calling committee/vestry.

Thank you all,

Juan Laurel

Happy birthday America!

“We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights, that among these are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. That to secure these rights, governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed.”

It is good to be reminded that our rights are divine endowments from our Creator (not from any government or court) and that governments are creations of the people whose intended purpose is to preserve and protect these rights.
